Just Living in Survival Mode?

When you have extra money, it's easy to talk about all of the responsible things you should do with it. But when you find yourself in the situation of not having enough money to take care of you and your family, you go into survival mode.

Remove that stress by taking control of your life. Money 101 is a financial lifeline that gives you the tools to break down your challenges into smaller, manageable pieces of a plan that works!

This FREE Program has been created for individuals who want to improve their ability to become financially stable. Sign up and complete 4, one-hour educational classes, and then get matched with a personal mentor who will help you build your own plan.

Part I.

Classroom What Color Is Your Money?

Select the statements which describe you best and find out!

-  I live paycheck to paycheck
-  I wish I had a paycheck
-  You should spend more than you have in life to get ahead
-  Worrying about money never helps.

Setting Smart Goals

-  Put together a spending plan that helps you meet your own goals
-  Develop a spending plan
-  Identify your fixed expenses
-  Know how and when to use credit
-  Learn how to get out of debt

Classes are taught by Melinda Hill OSU Extension, FCS Educator and are held at the

Wayne County Public Library
220 West Liberty Street,
Wooster

Part II.

Personal Mentor

After you complete the four week class, you are entitled to a FREE, one-on-one mentor who will help you put what you learned into action.

Trained volunteers will work with you to develop your own personal plan. Together you will decide your goals and build a plan to achieve it. Set up meeting times that work for your schedule and that of your mentor. You can continue working with your mentor as long as you feel you need to.

Upcoming Class dates are:

June 7, 14, 21 and 28

August 9, 16, 23, and 30

November 1, 8, 15 and 22

All above class times are from 6-7 p.m.
