You will be eligible to show only one market goat at the Wayne County Junior Fair. This includes the “Bred Born and Raised” and the market goat show - you may show in one class or the other, but not both. Your market goat must be shown in the appropriate weight class to be eligible to sell in the auction. The goat must be bred, born, and raised in Wayne County and exhibited by a Wayne County Exhibitor that lives within the borders of Wayne County, Ohio.

This form must be completed and turned in on 4-H Online to be eligible to show in the “Bred, Born, and Raised” class at the Wayne County Junior Fair.
